EastLink comprises approximately 39 kilometres of freeway standard road connecting the Eastern Freeway in Melbourne's east to the Frankston Freeway in the south. EastLink also features many other traffic engineering components, including:

- direction signage based on results of a driver perception survey and computer simulation
- a new methodology assessing the safety performance at intersections around EastLink.

EastLink delivered more than 35 kilometres of bicycle and walking paths for local residents. Landscape works included the construction of wetlands, installation of a shared use path and revegetation of open space areas and parkland.
