

WOMEN IN TRANSPORT

AITPM NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2017

Melbourne Convention and Exhibition Centre – 15-18 August

In early 2017 the State Government of Victoria launched their Women in Transport program which is a package of initiatives to encourage more women to enter and stay in the transport sector.

The AITPM supports the Victorian Government's, Women in Transport program which aims to increase the number of women working in the sector from 16 per cent to 25 per cent by 2020.

The AITPM has partnered with VicRoads, to subsidise 10 tickets ($1750) to young women who wish to become more engaged with the transport industry. This event will present the opportunity to network with professionals in relevant fields and hear discussion from industry leaders, including a plenary session from well-respected Women in Transport.

The AITPM provides a central point of reference for practitioners in traffic and transport planning and management, with over 850 members and corporate members in Australia and New Zealand.

The AITPM hold an annual national conference, which aims to

- Provide a forum to improve technical skills, challenge and promote technical debate
- Connect members and/or delegates to information and resources
- Be a valuable reference point for our members
- Engage and promote young professionals

The theme for this year's annual conference is 'Your Transport Future'. To be considered please submit a short (250-300 word) summary of your background, what 'Your Transport Future' means to you and why you would benefit from attending the conference, by Sunday 9 July 2017.

To be eligible for one of the 10 available places, you must meet the following requirements:

- Female student or young professional
- Be between 18-25 years old
